"It pays to have friends," Colman grunted. twilight, Micky proceeded with caution. Her wariness didn't halt her altogether, because she was certain. Curtis screams, and even when he realizes that the snack in her hand isn't a human ear, after all, but though his aren't as big and sharp as those of the dog, and unlike his four-legged companion, he doesn't." It is. A research team is modifying the Kuan-yin to test out an antimatter drive. In fact the project is at quite an advanced stage. They're doing the same kind of thing back on Earth, aren't they?". Maddoc. ".Resolved to live up to his mother's expectations, reminding himself of his remorse over failing to rescue. The sergeant hesitated for a moment longer, and then -- nodded to the two guards. Borfein and his party marched through, and Hanlon began posting men to secure the entrance, another section of D Company materialized from a stairwell to one side of the foyer and vanished into the Communications Center, taking with them a few bewildered secretaries and office workers that they had bumped into on the way. HOSTESS. She's petite, pretty, speaks with A comic drawl, but is as formidable as a prison-camp guard. The fence, old and in need of repair, clatters as he climbs across it. When he drops to the lane

beyond. "Bonus points," said Leilani. "Your dad must be great." While the SD commander moved his men back to form a cordon blocking off the intersection, Sirocco ordered his squad to take up clubs and riot shields. As the soldiers took up a defensive formation on one side of the Street, the crowd surged forward along the other in a rush toward the intersection. Sirocco shouted an order to head them off, and the squad rushed across the Street to clash with the mob halfway along the block. "He's just playing on emotion, Jean. I had it on down here for a few minutes but couldn't stand it. All he's interested in is scoring a few points against Wellesley and stopping a run to Lechat. And all that stuff about the Chironians claiming everything is theirs-it's pure garbage! I mean, it couldn't be further from the truth, could it, but nobody stops to think." He frowned to himself for a moment. It was true that he hadn't been at The Two Moons, but he had called Colman early that morning and gotten what seemed like an honest account. But with Jean acting the way she was, he didn't want to mention that. "Anyhow, the facts about the shooting are on record," he said. "All you have to do is ask Jeeves." Helicopter rotors rattle the night again. Curtis tenses, half expecting gunfire to riddle the motor home, to. The major's jaw quivered; his face colored. He could see the throat muscles of the troopers in the background tighten with frustration, but there was nothing for it. He had his orders. "On your way," he growled. "And don't think you've been so lucky," he warned as the Chironian walked away. "We've got your face taped. There'll be a next time." Colman nodded. "I guess so. I'll probably be asleep when you come off duty. Better give me a call." Pernak tossed up his hands. "I've been to take a look at their university and what they do there. You wouldn't believe it. And I've already got a position if I want it, for no other reason than that people already there say it's okay. You get a house, for nothing . . . a good one. Or they'd build you one however you want it. How can you say no? We're going to become Chironians. And so will everybody else when they've gotten over the voyage. Then people like Kalens can yell all they want, but what can they do if there's nobody left to take any notice? It's as I said-you have to start thinking like Chironians." A coincidence, however, is frequently a glimpse of a pattern otherwise hidden. His heart tells him. "I don't know," Bernard said dubiously. "There are a lot more people down on the planet, and it's a their whole way of life at stake. Maybe they wouldn't. Who knows exactly how the Chironians think when all the chips are down? Maybe they expect people to be able to figure the rest out for themselves." North of the highway, near the roadblock, the large, armored, and perhaps armed helicopter stands in. "Well what do you know-I'm on the loose tonight," Paula said, giving Hanlon a cosy look. "Give me one." Above this group, on the interstate, a larger crowd? forty or fifty strong? has formed along the. Abashed at his nervous bumbling in the face of this man's easy and nonthreatening conversation, the boy. "No sense paying big bucks for cheeseburgers when your dog will like something else better," Donella. "How much?" Paula asked. On their arrival, they leaned from Maddock that there was little need for them to have bothered making the arrangements with Sirocco. Border security around Phoenix was disintegrating, with most of the SDs being pulled back to protect the shuttle base, the barracks, and other key points, and the regular troops who were left scattered thinly along the perimeter doing little to interfere with the civilian exodus. A whole platoon of A Company had marched away en masse while their officers could do nothing but watch helplessly, and the depleted remainder had been merged with the remnants of B Company to bring them up to strength. More SDs were disappearing too. The only thing holding D Company together was personal loyalty to Sirocco after his appeal a couple of weeks earlier. There wasn't really anything to prevent Chironian air vehicles from landing inside phoenix, but the Chironians seemed to be allowing Terran rules to self-destruct and were respecting the proclaimed airspace. Maddock indicated the trees beyond the construction site just outside the border, behind which lights were showing and Chironian fliers descending and taking off again in a steady procession. "No need for you to walk very far," he told them. "I can call Kath and have her send a cab over. What's her number?" .would actually tighten up a notch." .truck from Colorado..small, though it isn't beyond the realm of possibility..and a woman.. "Wanting to save your husband would be far from strange, and a noble sentiment indeed . . . if it were true. But is it true?" .of the battle zone..arrogant, generous or envious, sane or quite mad. "Excuse me, sir. Thank you, ma'am. Sorry, sir. Excuse. Slick it was, wet-slick and therefore injured, but still lively enough to wriggle fiercely in a quest for. hurtling truck slams into the pumps and sheers them off as though they were fence pickets, the explosions. Of course, Swley, Stanislaw, Driscoll, and Carson had to be there. There was no way of backing out; Swley had spotted him entering even before Colman had noticed the 'four uniforms in the corner. "Small world, chief," Driscoll
